ORDER

10 Civ. 1866 (BMC)

In a Memorandum Decision and Order dated April 5, 2012, this Court granted in part claimant Robert Potenza's motion for attorneys' fees and expenses as a substantially prevailing party under the Civil Asset Forfeiture Reform Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2465(b)(1)(A). This Court directed claimant to confer with the government and submit a revised calculation of the attorneys' fees award based on certain rulings in the Memorandum Decision and Order. Claimant now informs this Court that the revised award amounts to $743,276.71. The government does not have any objection to this calculation.

Accordingly, claimant's [70] motion for attorneys' fees is granted. The Clerk of the Court is directed to enter judgment in favor of claimant in the amount of $743,276.71.

SO ORDERED.
